

Timeline for Processing of Global Investor Program (GIP) Applications

Applicant submits GIP application forms to Contact Singapore

2-4 months

Contact Singapore invites Applicant for an interview with Contact Singapore officers

2-4 months

If Applicant meets all assessment criteria, Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) will issue an Approval-in-Principle (AIP) status to the Applicant.

Applicant makes the necessary investment under the selected investment option, within 6 months from the date of the AIP letter.

Upon investment, Applicant provides evidence of the investments made (e.g. certified true copy of share certificates, bank statements and other legal documents) and submits the Investment Undertaking on the Terms and Conditions of the investment made.

Upon receiving the investment documents by Contact Singapore, ICA will issue the final approval letter.

Applicant must formalise his/her Permanent Residence status in Singapore within 12 months from the date of the final approval letter.

Note: The above timeline is subject to complete submission of all required supporting documents upon application.
